

Guilford Horticultural Society
@The Greensboro Science Center
4310 Lawndale Drive Greensboro, NC 27408

Dear Horticultural Society Members,

I hope your garden is surviving the soaking as we welcome shorter days and plan for fall planting!

The season kicks off with the annual “Wine & Cheese” Social Sunday, September 9, 2018 from 5:00 to 7:00 at the gardens of Jackie & Scott Tanseer, 1619 S College St in Greensboro. Members and nonmembers are welcome. Bring an appetizer to share. Come enjoy the garden and chat with like-minded plant enthusiasts as we begin another wonderful season.

We have an exciting line-up for our 2018-2019 Monday evening lectures listed on page 2.

Our 34th Annual Symposium will be held Saturday, March 2, 2019 at the Agriculture Center. This year’s theme is “Roots and Shoots.” We’ve invited nationally-known speakers:

Treasures for Shady and Not-So-Shady Gardens John Lonsdale will be sharing unusual and beautiful shade and sun-loving plants which he grows in his garden in Exton, PA.

The Inspired Plantsmen: Nature-Inspired Approach to Plant Selection and Composition Join Thomas Rainer to learn how plants fit together in nature and how to use this knowledge to create landscapes that are resilient, beautiful, and diverse.

Inspirations: An Exploration of the Plant Communities and Designers that Give me Hope - Explore sources of inspiration and hope for solutions for a changing world. Thomas Rainer takes us on a very personal journey to the places and people that inspire change.

Elizabeth Lawrence in the 21st Century. Why her writings are still essential reads for those gardening in the South with Douglas Ruhren.

Space is limited for this exciting event so get your tickets early!

Secretary & Web Maven Nanny Foster will tell you of upcoming events through email unless otherwise specified. You can also follow us on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/GuilfordHortSociety/>) or keep up with what’s happening on our website (<http://www.guilfordhorticulturalsociety.org/>). We want to share your photos, garden events and favorite plants. Please share them on FB or send them to Nanny and she’ll post them for you.

Pat Price continues as Treasurer & Symposium Registrar this season. Please fill out and detach the membership form on the back page and mail directly to Pat or bring your dues to our first meeting. You may also include your Symposium fees now as well. If you pay your membership dues by the October meeting you will be included in a drawing for a $50.00 gift certificate from Guilford Garden Center.

Monday night meetings will continue at the Greensboro Science Center at 7:15 p.m., the third Monday night of the month September through May WITH THE EXCEPTION of January, when we will meet on the second Monday night due to Martin Luther King holiday.

Our season will close with the fabulous annual picnic on Sunday, June 2, 2019 from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at Guilford Garden Center, 701 Milner Drive in Greensboro. Bring a covered dish to share and enjoy strolling through the shrubs, trees, flowers, pottery and gardening supplies.

Thank you to all our members for your continued support and please invite your gardening friends. We’re all looking forward to seeing you once again.
